

EVENTCATERERS

Senior Chef – York Racecourse

We are recruiting a self-motivated Senior Chef, who is ready for a new professional challenge

JOB ROLE

- Support the Head Chef within all food sectors of the kitchen; from fine dining restaurants to large banqueting events and corporate hospitality
- In collaboration with the Head Chef and the team you will ensure consistency of producing bespoke menus/dishes as per our customer needs
- Supervise the running of a kitchen. Preparation and service of assigned functions & hospitality to an accepted level
- Along with the team, assist with menu planning, stock rotation and work to deliver the GP set for the site
- Along with the team you will be asked to supervise, train, manage, organise & motivate junior chefs & kitchen porters
- Along with the team you will be responsible to keep in line with menu specifications for quality, cost, allergen purposes
- You are responsible for maintaining good food hygiene practices and due diligence as designated by legislation and the company's specification to include all HACCP recording and documentation

CANDIDATE PROFILE

- You will have gained previous working knowledge within a similar multi-unit, fast paced, high end hotel/hospitality/retail or catering environment which is a close fit with York Racecourse's level of catering
- Being an inspirational leader, you will be able to motivate and communicate at all levels and commit to sharing your knowledge and skills within our service and kitchen teams
- You will have very strong people management and communication skills with the ability to lead a team
- Possess a sense of urgency and a can do attitude with a focus on continuous improvement

SALARY AND BENEFITS

- Excellent salary and benefits
- Exceptional opportunity for personal training and development
- Internal transfer and promotion opportunities
- Meals on duty

JOB TYPE

Full time

HOW TO APPLY

If you would like to find out more details and express your interest in this vacancy then please contact Andrew Donohue via email at Andrew.donohue@cgceventcaterers.co.uk